9. GUIDELINE FOR WRITING OF MANUSCRIPT
9.1 Writing
(1) The technical terms used in the manuscript are in principle in compliance with those specified in "the collection book of technical terms" compiled by the Ministry of Education, for instance, machinery part, ship’s part, physics part, electricity part and chemistry part etc, and also in compliance with the technical terms specified in the rule of JIS (the Japanese Industrial standard). For all other technical terms than specified in the above provisions, the proper technical terms commonly used should be used.

(2) The heading of chapter of the text should be positioned at the middle of line, and the sub-heading of paragraph and clause should be indented by one space, and the text should be commenced with further indent by 2 spaces. The Gothic style letters should be used for the words of heading and Sub-heading, but such Gothic style letters should not be used throughout the text outside of the special and exceptional case. Also, the bold letters must not be used for the words of heading, sub-heading and the text.

(3) For the punctuation of sentence, full stop (.) and comma (,) should be used. The punctuation, the quotation marks including parenthesis and bracket etc. are counted as one letter, and the head of new line of the sentence is always indented by one space.

(4) Arabic style should be used for figures and SI unit should be used for showing units. Also, the symbol marks decided by JIS rule should be used for showing the unit of quantity, sign of unit and figure.

9.2 Illustrations
The illustrations (Line drawings, Photos etc.) should be not only inserted in the text, but also separately filed with the consecutive numbers like fig01.jpg and fig02.bmp being given, and such separate file should be submitted together with the electronic file of the manuscript. The chart should be drawn in the text, and the title of chart and the words of insertion thereto may be in English.

9.3 Bibliography
The bibliography is specified together at the end of the text in accordance with the example shown in the attached paper hereto.

9.4 Abstract
For the manuscript written in English, the title of the text in English, author's name in English and summary in English within 250 words should be inserted, and Summary in Japanese should be attached.

9.5 Contribution in English
(1) The contribution in English may be accepted for all the categories provided that the author uses Template File for English to produce the manuscript.
(2) The Editors’ Committee may ask the native check by its own judgment after its perusal of the contributed manuscript. In this event the expenses for proofreading should be born by the contributor in principle.
(3) For the Research Paper and manuscript of Technical Information of the contribution in English, the title in Japanese, the author’s name in Japanese and summary in Japanese within 300 words should be inserted to the text, and the summary in English should be also attached thereto.

9.6 The introduction of the author and photo of his face
The brief introduction of the author within 150 words and the photo of his face can be inserted at the end of the manuscript.

10. Handling of manuscript for the Journal, etc.
10.1 Any revision or correction of the manuscript will not be accepted after the submission has been made, although the author should intents to do so.

10.2 Whether or not the manuscript could be accepted will be decided by the editorial director(s), taking into consideration the opinion of reading examiner(s). Upon his decision the editorial director(s) may present the opinion of reading examiner(s) to the Editors' Committee to ask its advice.

10.3 The decision of acceptance or non-acceptance of other manuscript than article will be considered by the Editors' Committee, and then, the editorial director(s) makes final decision.

10.4 In the event that the editorial director(s) has demanded the reduction or addition of contents, the author may express and state his opinion.

10.5 The author will be given one opportunity of proofreading, however, any correction or additional revision should not be permitted.

10.6 Remuneration for writing and publication fee etc.

(1) No remuneration for writing will be paid. Also, if and when the special cost and expenses should have incurred to the Institution due to handling of the manuscript and/or chart etc. of electronic file, such cost and expenses should be born by the author.

(2) The author of Research Paper should pay to the Institution the following publication fee as specified below.
